EXPLANATORY NOTES ON THE NULLITY OF THE BREEDER'S RIGHT
UNDER THE UPOV CONVENTION<sup>a</sup>

PREAMBLE

1. The purpose of these Explanatory Notes is to provide guidance on the “Nullity of the Breeder’s Right” under the International Convention for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants (UPOV Convention). The only binding obligations on members of the Union are those contained in the text of the UPOV Convention itself, and these Explanatory Notes must not be interpreted in a way that is inconsistent with the relevant Act for the member of the Union concerned.

2. Section II provides guidance on certain aspects of the provisions on the nullity of the breeder’s right contained in Article 21 of the 1991 Act of the UPOV Convention and Article 10(1) and (4) of the 1978 Act of the UPOV Convention.

SECTION I: PROVISIONS ON THE NULLITY OF THE BREEDER'S RIGHT

3. The provisions on the nullity of the breeder's right contained in Article 21 of the 1991 Act of the UPOV Convention and Article 10 (1) and (4) of the 1978 Act of the UPOV Convention are reproduced below:

1991 Act of the UPOV Convention*Article 21*Nullity of the Breeder's Right

(1) [Reasons of nullity] Each Contracting Party shall declare a breeder's right granted by it null and void when it is established

(i) that the conditions laid down in Articles 6 or 7 were not complied with at the time of the grant of the breeder's right,

(ii) that, where the grant of the breeder's right has been essentially based upon information and documents furnished by the breeder, the conditions laid down in Articles 8 or 9 were not complied with at the time of the grant of the breeder's right,<sup>[1]</sup> or

(iii) that the breeder's right has been granted to a person who is not entitled to it, unless it is transferred to the person who is so entitled.<sup>[2]</sup>

(2) [Exclusion of other reasons] No breeder's right shall be declared null and void for reasons other than those referred to in paragraph (1).

<sup>2</sup> There is no corresponding provision to Article 21(1)(iii) of the 1991 Act in the 1978 Act.

Article 10 of the 1978 Act of the UPOV Convention

Article 10

Nullity [and Forfeiture] of the Rights Protected

(1) The right of the breeder shall be declared null and void, in accordance with the provisions of the national law of each member State of the Union, if it is established that the conditions laid down in Article 6(1)(a) and (b) were not effectively complied with at the time when the title of protection was issued.

[...]<sup>[3]</sup>

(4) The right of the breeder may not be annulled [or become forfeit] except on the grounds set out in this Article.

SECTION II: CERTAIN ASPECTS OF THE PROVISIONS ON THE NULLITY OF THE BREEDER'S RIGHT

4. When a breeder's right is declared null and void, it is equivalent to pronouncing that it was an invalid right and should not have been granted in the first instance. In contrast, a breeder's right which is cancelled was valid until the date of cancellation and was, in particular, valid at the time of granting (see Explanatory Notes on the Cancellation of the Breeder's Right under the UPOV Convention (document UPOV/EXN/CAN/1)).

5. The use of the word "shall" clarifies that the competent authority must declare the breeder's right null and void if the criteria set out in Article 21(1) of the 1991 Act of the UPOV Convention and Article 10(1) of the 1978 Act of the UPOV Convention are met.
