- (3) The seat of the Union and its permanent organs shall be at Geneva.

Article 24

Legal Status

- (1) The Union shall have legal personality.
- (2) The Union shall enjoy on the territory of each member State of the Union, in conformity with the laws of that State, such legal capacity as may be necessary for the fulfillment of the objectives of the Union and for the exercise of its functions.
- (3) The Union shall conclude a headquarters agreement with the Swiss Confederation.

Proposed New Text

Article 17

Union

- (1) The Contracting Parties shall be members of the Union.*
- (2) The Union has legal personality.
- (3) The Union enjoys on the territory of each Contracting Party, in conformity with the laws applicable in the said territory, such legal capacity as may be necessary for the fulfillment of the objectives of the Union and for the exercise of its functions.
- (4) The Headquarters of the Union and its permanent organs are at Geneva.
- (5) The Union has a headquarters agreement with the Swiss Confederation.

* The Union is one and the same both for the Contracting Parties (to the present Convention) and for those States that are party only to earlier Acts than the present Convention.

Present [1978] Text

Article 15

Organs of the Union

The permanent organs of the Union shall be:

- (a) the Council;
- (b) the Secretariat General, entitled the Office of the International Union for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants.

Proposed New Text

Article 18

Organs of the Union

The permanent organs of the Union shall be:

- (i) the Council;
- (ii) the Secretariat General, entitled the Office of the International Union for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants.

Article 16

Composition of the Council; Votes

- (1) The Council shall consist of the representatives of the member States of the Union. Each member State of the Union shall appoint one representative to the Council and one alternate.
- (2) Representatives or alternates may be accompanied by assistants or advisers.
- (3) Each member State of the Union shall have one vote in the Council.

Proposed New Text

Article 19

Composition of the Council; Votes

(1) The Council* shall consist of the representatives of the members of the Union. Each member of the Union shall appoint one representative to the Council and one alternate.

(2) Representatives or alternates may be accompanied by assistants or advisers.

(3) Each member of the Union shall have one vote in the Council.**

---

* The Council is one and the same for the members whether they joined the Union by becoming a party to this Convention or to an earlier Act.

** This provision means that an intergovernmental organization would have a vote irrespective of whether one, some or all of its member States is/are member(s) of the Union.

Present [1978] Text

Article 17

Observers in Meetings of the Council

(1) States not members of the Union which have signed this Act shall be invited as observers to meetings of the Council.

(2) Other observers or experts may also be invited to such meetings.

Proposed New Text

Article 20

Observers in Meetings of the Council

(1) States and intergovernmental organizations not members of the Union which have signed this Convention and which are not Contracting Parties shall be invited as observers to meetings of the Council.*

(2) Other observers, as well as experts, may also be invited to such meetings.**

* States which are members of the Union but which have not signed this Convention are members of the Council as the Council is one and the same for all members of the Union.

** "Or" in the existing text is replaced by "as well as" and two commas are introduced to make it clear that "Other" only refers to "Observers."

(2)(a) The share of each member of the Union in the total amount of the annual contributions shall be determined by reference to the total expenditure to be met from the contributions of the members of the Union and to the number of contribution units applicable to it under paragraph (3). The said share shall be computed according to paragraph (4).

(b) The number of contribution units shall be expressed in whole numbers or fractions thereof, provided that no fraction shall be smaller than one-fifth.

Present [1978] Text*Article 26 [Cont'd]

(3)(a) As far as any State is concerned which is a member State of the Union on the date on which this Act enters into force with respect to that State, the number of contribution units applicable to it shall be the same as was applicable to it, immediately before the said date, according to the Convention of 1961 as amended by the Additional Act of 1972.

(b) As far as any other State is concerned, that State shall, on joining the Union, indicate, in a declaration addressed to the Secretary-General, the number of contribution units applicable to it.

(c) Any member State of the Union may, at any time, indicate, in a declaration addressed to the Secretary-General, a number of contribution units different from the number applicable to it under subparagraph (a) or (b). Such declaration, if made during the first six months of a calendar year, shall take effect from the beginning of the subsequent calendar year; otherwise it shall take effect from the beginning of the second calendar year which follows the year in which the declaration was made.

(3)(a) The number of contribution units applicable to any member of the Union which is party to the Act of 1961/1972 or the Act of 1978 on the date on which it becomes bound by this Convention shall be the same as the number applicable to it immediately before the said date.

(b) As far as any other Contracting Party is concerned, that Contracting Party shall, on joining the Union, indicate, in a declaration addressed to the Secretary-General, the number of contribution units applicable to it.

(c) Any member of the Union may, at any time, indicate, in a declaration addressed to the Secretary-General, a number of contribution units different from the number applicable to it under subparagraph (a) or (b). Article 26 [Cont'd]

(4)(a) For each budgetary period, the amount corresponding to one contribution unit shall be obtained by dividing the total amount of the expenditure to be met in that period from the contributions of the member States of the Union by the total number of units applicable to those States.

(b) The amount of the contribution of each member State of the Union shall be obtained by multiplying the amount corresponding to one contribution unit by the number of contribution units applicable to that State.

(5)(a) A member State of the Union which is in arrears in the payment of its contributions may not, subject to paragraph (b), exercise its right to vote in the Council if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years. The suspension of the right to vote does not relieve such State of its obligations under this Convention and does not deprive it of any other rights thereunder.

(b) The Council may allow the said State to continue to exercise its right to vote if, and as long as, the Council is satisfied that the delay in payment is due to exceptional and unavoidable circumstances.

Article 33

Entry into Force; Closing of Earlier Texts

(1) This Act shall enter into force one month after the following two conditions are fulfilled:

(a) the number of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession deposited is not less than five; and

(b) at least three of the said instruments are instruments deposited by States parties to the Convention of 1961.

(2) With respect to any State which deposits its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession after the conditions referred to in paragraph (1)(a) and (b) have been fulfilled, this Act shall enter into force one month after the deposit of the instrument of the said State.

(3) Once this Act enters into force according to paragraph (1), no State may accede to the Convention of 1961 as amended by the Additional Act of 1972.

Proposed New Text

Article 34

Entry into Force; Closing of Earlier Texts

(1) This Convention shall enter into force one month after five States or intergovernmental organizations have deposited their instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, provided that at least three of the said instruments have been deposited by States party to the Act of 1978.

(2) Any State or intergovernmental organization not covered by paragraph (1) shall become bound by this Convention one month after the date on which it has deposited its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.

(3) Once this Convention enters into force according to paragraph (1), no State may accede to the Act of 1961/1972 or the Act of 1978.

Article 34

Relations Between States Bound by Different Texts

(1) Any member State of the Union which, on the day on which this Act enters into force with respect to that State, is bound by the Convention of 1961 as amended by the Additional Act of 1972 shall, in its relations with any other member State of the Union which is not bound by this Act, continue to apply, until the present Act enters into force also with respect to that other State, the said Convention as amended by the said Additional Act.

(2) Any member State of the Union not bound by this Act ("the former State") may declare, in a notification addressed to the Secretary-General, that it will apply the Convention of 1961 as amended by the Additional Act of 1972 in its relations with any State bound by this Act which becomes a member of the Union through ratification, acceptance or approval of or accession to this Act ("the latter State"). As from the beginning of one month after the date of any such notification and until the entry into force of this Act with respect to the former State, the former State shall apply the Convention of 1961 as amended by the Additional Act of 1972 in its relations with any such latter State, whereas any such latter State shall apply this Act in its relations with the former State.

Proposed New Text

Article 35

Relations Between Contracting Parties and States Bound by Earlier Texts

(1) Between States members of the Union which are bound both by this Convention and any earlier Act of the Convention, only this Convention shall apply.

(2) Any State member of the Union not bound by this Convention may declare, in a notification addressed to the Secretary-General, that, in its relations with any member of the Union bound only by this Convention, it will apply the latest Act by which it is bound. As from the expiration of one month after the date of such notification and until the State member of the Union making the declaration becomes bound by this Convention, the said member of the Union shall apply the latest Act by which it is bound in its relations with each of the members of the Union bound only by this Convention, whereas the latter shall apply this Convention in respect of the former.

Present [1978] Text

Article 35 [Cont'd]

(2) The Secretary-General shall, on the basis of communications received from each member State of the Union concerned, publish information on:

(a) the extension of the application of the provisions of this Convention to additional genera and species after the entry into force of this Act with respect to that State;

(b) any use of the faculty provided for in Article 3(3);

(c) the use of any faculty granted by the Council pursuant to Article 4(4) or (5);

(d) any use of the faculty provided for in Article 5(4), first sentence, with an indication of the nature of the more extensive rights and with a specification of the genera and species to which such rights apply;

(e) any use of the faculty provided for in Article 5(4), second sentence;

(f) the fact that the law of the said State contains a provision as permitted under Article 6(1)(b)(i), and the length of the period permitted;

(g) the length of the period referred to in Article 8 if such period is longer than the fifteen years and the eighteen years, respectively, referred to in that Article.

Proposed New Text

(3) The Secretary-General shall, on the basis of communications received from each Contracting Party of the Union concerned, publish information on:

(i) the legislation governing breeders' rights and any changes in that legislation;

(ii) the extension referred to in paragraph (2) (ii) to additional genera and species after that State becomes bound by this Convention;

[(iii) any use of the faculty provided for in Article 16(1)(b) with a specification of the genera and species in respect of which products directly obtained from harvested material shall be protected.]*

Article 40

Reservations

No reservations to this Convention are permitted.

Article 37

Exceptional Rules for Protection Under Two Forms

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2(1), any State which, prior to the end of the period during which this Act is open for signature, provides for protection under the different forms referred to in Article 2(1) for one and the same genus or species, may continue to do so if, at the time of signing this Act or of depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval of or accession to this Act, it notifies the Secretary-General of that fact.

(2) Where, in a member State of the Union to which paragraph (1) applies, protection is sought under patent legislation, the said State may apply the patentability criteria and the period of protection of the patent legislation to the varieties protected thereunder, notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 6(1)(a) and (b) and 8.

(3) The said State may, at any time, notify the Secretary-General of the withdrawal of the notification it has given under paragraph (1). Such withdrawal shall take effect on the date which the State shall indicate in its notification of withdrawal.

Article 38

Reservations

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), no reservations to this Convention are permitted.

(2)(a) Any State which, at the time of becoming party to this Convention, is a party to the Act of 1978 and which, as far as varieties reproduced asexually are concerned, provides for protection by an industrial property title other than a breeders' right shall have the right to continue to do so without applying this Convention to those varieties.*

(b) Any State making use of this right shall, at the time of becoming party to this Convention, notify the Secretary-General accordingly. The same State may, at any time, withdraw the said notification.

Article 39

Denunciation

The new text does not contain any provision corresponding to paragraph (1) of Article 41 of the present text.

(1) Any Contracting Party may denounce this Convention by notification addressed to the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General shall promptly notify all Contracting Parties of the receipt of that notification.

(2) Notification of the denunciation of this Convention shall be deemed also to constitute notification of the denunciation of any former Act by which the Contracting Party denouncing this Convention is bound.

(3) The denunciation shall take effect at the end of the calendar year following the year in which the notification was received by the Secretary-General.

(4) The denunciation shall not affect any rights acquired in a variety by reason of this Act or any earlier Act prior to the date on which the denunciation becomes effective.
