

Yasunori EBIHARA

Mr. Yasunori Ebihara was assigned to Director, PVP Office of the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (MAFF) of Japan on June 28, 2022.

Mr. Yasunori graduated from the Tohoku University with a master's degree in Agricultural Science.

He has worked for the MAFF since 2000, mainly in charge of a policy for the domestic major crop production. He was deputy director for international affair, PVP Office of MAFF of Japan from 2008 to 2011. He has been involved with the East Asia Plant Variety Protection Forum since its early days and contributed to the cooperation activities in the Asian region that continue to this day.